

Chinatown Tour & Dim Sum Brunch

Instructor: Rose Lee & Associates

Learn your way around this unique section of downtown Boston as we explore the nooks and crannies of both old and new Chinatown. At the end of the tour, we will have a sumptuous Dim Sum lunch. (The fee for lunch will be an additional $5-$7 per person payable at the restaurant.) This is a walking tour, so wear comfortable shoes and bring your shopping bag. Chinatown is near South Station and the Chinatown T stop. Public transportation is recommended, but parking is available in the area. A map showing directions and meeting place can be found at wellesley.ma.gov, then click on Town Departments and find Recreation or call the Rec. office to have directions mailed to you.

Tour is held Rain or Shine.

Brookline Food Tour

Instructor: Julia Goldberg

Please join us for 3-hour guided walking tour of Brookline's historical Harvard Street and Coolidge Corner. You will visit many of the town's treasured Jewish food shops and restaurants - including Zaftig's, Kupel's Bagels, Rami's, and the Butcherie - learning about culinary traditions and folklore. You will taste authentic Jewish food, such as Gefelte Fish, Matzo Ball Soup, Latkes, and Falafel, Kosher wines, and much more. You will learn about kashrut rules and the influence of Middleastern, European, and Asian cultures on Jewish cuisine. As we walk, we'll discuss Jewish history in Brookline and share interesting anecdotes about the owners of the establishments and other famous Brookline residents from the 18th-21st centuries. And finally, you will be given discount coupons to use at many Brookline establishments when you return on your own! Meet at Pizzeria UNO in Allston, 1230 Commonwealth Ave, Allston, MA 02134.

Tour is held Rain or Shine.
